Meeting	Welcome	Leila Barraza
Discussion	AHEC Scholars January Immersion survey results have been received. All RHPP program directors state colleges and universities are allowing for in-person meetings at this time. Preference from scholars is split between in-person and remote. Spring immersion is scheduled for January 29-30, 2022. Full report on result of AHEC Scholars 2021 Orientation and Immersion survey has been shared with Regional Center and RHPP directors. Finding indicate that Scholars would prefer less time on Zoom. Recommendations include holding online Orientations on a different weekend than the Immersion and holding Immersions in person as soon as possible. Faculty Mentors have been invited to meet next week to provide their feedback on the January immersion, and Center Directors will be invited to join them in that discussion. Open discussion on logistics for spring immersion: There may be students who feel more comfortable being completely remote; will then need to provide them with a task that they can do on their own. NAHEC could build an immersion around both in-person and hybrid with augmented assignments for remote attenders. WAHEC suggest one day remote and one day hybrid. CAAHEC was planning an in-person immersion, but will re-evaluate how best to serve those not attending in-person. SAAHEC can accommodate hybrid, but is hoping more students will attend an in-person offering. All RHPP Directors agreed that a shared immersion between both graduate level cohorts available to attend would be a great benefit to all scholars. Following meeting with Faculty Mentors/Center Directors, RHPP Directors will be provided with a summary of the results for further discussion as necessary.	Nicole Paredes Sonia Cota-Robles Jennifer Zuniga Leila Barraza Courtney Madsen Joena Ezroj Ana Roscetti Nancy Johnson
